Description

Become a member today! There are general, corporate and student annual memberships for everyone.

Membership in the Biological Stain Commission

Individual and Corporate Membership in the BSC is open to all who are interested in biological and medical uses of stains and dyes.

The annual dues include a subscription to the journal, 6 issues per year, with access to current and all back issues of Biotechnic & Histochemistry (1991-present) and its predecessor, Stain Technology (1925-1991).

If you are interested in becoming a member of the BSC, here are two options:
